NARRATIVE:

Daniel Williams is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include carrying a concealed weapon, possession of dangerous weapons, multiple cases of evading peace officers with great bodily injury, driving under the influence of alcohol causing injury, multiple cases of vehicle theft, burglary, false information to a peace officer, possession of controlled substances and failing to report. He has served multiple incarcerations the longest being 5 years for vehicle theft with prior. Williams was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 23, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Williams qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for vehicle theft with prior is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
